

I believe that the code requirements for General and Extra class amateur radio licenses should be maintained.